COMES NOW PLAINTIFF BERT MEYER and complains of defendants, and each of them, and alleges:

1. At all times mentioned herein plaintiff BERT MEYER was a longshoreman employed by McCabe, Hamilton, & Renny Co., Ltd.

EXHIBIT A

2. The basis of federal jurisdiction is Admiralty, 28 U.S.C. Sec. 1333. This is an admiralty claim for purposes of Rule 9(h). Diversity is an alternate bases for federal jurisdiction.

3. Defendant PACIFIC LIVESTOCK, INC. is a citizen of the State of California.

4. The amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00, exclusive of costs and interest.

5. At all times material hereto defendant MATSON NAVIGATION COMPANY, INC. owned, possessed, operated, managed, and was agent for the vessel S/S LIHUE which it managed, operated, and controlled in coastwise, intercoastal, and foreign navigation.

6. On or about October 1, 2002, plaintiff's employer, McCabe, Hamilton & Renny Co., Ltd., was engaged in rendering longshoring services on and about the S/S LIHUE which was pierside in navigable waters at Pier 52, Matson Terminal, Sand Island, Honolulu, Hawaii, and plaintiff was employed as a longshoreman on that site and at that time was performing such services on behalf of the employer.

7. On or about October 1, 2002, while working aboard the S/S LIHUE in navigable waters at the Matson Terminal, Honolulu, Hawaii, plaintiff suffered severe and disabling injuries when he fell from an unguarded catwalk and lashing platform grating.

8. Defendant MATSON NAVIGATION COMPANY, INC. breached its duty of care to plaintiff on October 1, 2002, by creating an unreasonably dangerous work environment for plaintiff aboard the S/S LIHUE in that there was no guardrail or cover or fall protection for subject catwalk and lashing platform grating, and there was animal waste on said catwalk grating and surrounding surfaces which made plaintiff's work area slippery and unsafe. Defendant PACIFIC LIVESTOCK, INC. employed the animal tenders who were aboard the S/S LIHUE at the time of plaintiff's accident. Defendants negligently failed to ensure that all animal waste was cleaned off the catwalks and hatch covers aboard S/S LIHUE on October 1, 2002, prior to the start of cargo operations by the longshoremen.

9. Defendant MATSON NAVIGATION COMPANY, INC. negligently failed to turn over the vessel to the stevedores in a safe condition and negligently failed to safely maintain equipment under its control.

10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and on such information and belief alleges that the aforementioned injuries are permanent in nature. All of said injuries have and will continue to cause plaintiff severe pain and suffering, whereby he has been generally damaged in a sum to be proven at trial. All of said injuries were caused by the negligence of defendants, and each of them.

11. As a direct and proximate result of said negligent conduct of defendants, and each of them, plaintiff has incurred and will continue to incur liabilities for medical attention, care and treatment, and wage loss, the exact amount of which is unknown to plaintiff at this time and plaintiff has been additionally damaged in said amount and prays leave to amend this complaint and insert amount upon the same being ascertained.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against defendants, and each of them, as follows:

1. For general damages, according to proof at trial;
2. For medical and incidental expenses, according to proof;
3. For loss of earnings and earning capacity and fringe benefits, according to proof;
4. For prejudgment interest, according to proof;
5. For costs of suit incurred herein;
6. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
